vlex. com

The largest collection of global content.

Global content you can only find at vLex.

Only vLex offers content from 98 countries in a single platform. Many resources are available here and nowhere else: books and publications, contracts and forms, etc.

Thorough coverage.

We publish full texts (including all sections of official journals).

Daily updates.

The content at vLex is updated daily. Find the information at vLex before it is published in any other database.

Constant evolution.

vLex has a stringent calendar in place for launching new countries and contents, making the service more and more compelling.

Global information is now at your fingertips

Language is no longer a barrier.

vLex is the only platform that integrates automatic translations as well as a system of on-demand translation.

Customer service available in nine languages.

Questions? Comments? Contact us by phone, e-mail or live chat.

Work from a single platform. Nothing more to learn.

All your searches are carried out on a single global platform, so you will only have to learn the search system once.

A global technological platform at your service.

Benefit from powerful search functionalities.

Our in-house technology at your service: relevant algorithms, advanced searches, etc.

Customize your platform to meet your needs.

Save important documents, create e-mail alerts, RSS, etc.

Rigorous content management.

We control information so that you always have what you need when you need it: standard versions, browsing options, version of the text in original format, etc.

Integration and tracking tools.

We help you incorporate vLex contents into your library catalogue. And we offer you a control panel from where you can monitor statistics about your use of the service.
